Interior Design, revise certification requirements	Students wishing to certify into the Bachelor of Arts in Interior Design program must complete a minimum of 45 semester hours and receive a C or better in the following eight courses: I D 101, 102, 197, 201, 203, 205, 215, 297, or transfer equivalents as approved by the department. Upon completion of ID 203, students' GPAs are used to determine certification into the major in Interior Design.	Students wishing to certify into the Bachelor of Arts in Interior Design program must complete a minimum of 45 semester hours. Of those 45 semester hours, 29 semester hours (26 for transfer students) are major specific courses (I D 101, 102, 197, 201, 202, 203, 205, 215, 297, or transfer equivalents as approved by the department) in which the student must receive a C or better. Upon completion of ID 203, students' GPAs are used to determine certification into the major in Interior Design. The student's overall WSU GPA and major specific GPA from the courses listed above are considered. While students must have a minimum of a 2.5 GPA to apply for certification, the process is competitive due to limited space in upper division courses. The program caps acceptance at 30 students.	8-10
