The Business of Art Certificate
Offered jointly by the Center for Entrepreneurial Studies and Fine Arts

Rationale
The Fine Arts (FA) program and the Center for Entrepreneurial Studies (CES) in conjunction with the Management, Information Systems and Entrepreneurship Department propose to fill a clear student need for a certificate in the Business of Art. In this certificate students will learn and explore how to best integrate art and entrepreneurship to further their professional careers as creative innovators, ideators, makers, marketers, and entrepreneurs.

There are a number of current market conditions that support the creation of this certificate. Current market research shows that the online market, sales and distribution of artwork is a continuously growing field globally. This joint certificate will allow students to learn from WSU experts both in the fields of Fine Arts and Entrepreneurship and is designed to create interdisciplinary connections between makers, creative planners, entrepreneurs and marketers. Students in both Fine Arts and Business/CES programs could benefit from working across their individual programs to promote success in their chosen area and develop collaborative skills. Artists will gain the practical skills and applications to navigate the entrepreneurial side of their artistic career, learning how to brand/market themselves in contemporary environments. Business students will acquire the visual literacy and creative edge of artists. This certificate will provide both FA and CES students with recognized qualifications necessary for today’s marketplace.
